

I wish the Indiana Laws on privacy to be left as they are.
Since the enactment of the privacy law here our unwanted calls have gone from two or three a day to maybe one a week, if that. I am thrilled that our state was successful in stopping these calls that are clearly an invasion of my privacy.